Wm. R. Kuhn's twenty-first birthday was celebrated with a grand party on Saturday evening, Jan. 2nd.

The installation exercises of the Royal Arcanum will be public. Members are privileged to invite their friends.

Mr. Horace F. Little, a resident of Westfield, and Auditor of the American Express Company, died on Tuesday.

The Christmas celebration of the Baptist Union Sunday-school was held Monday evening, December 31st.

Charles W. Martin's employees presented him with a handsome testimonial on Christmas day.

There was a pleasant social gathering at the residence of Mr. James Hampton on Belmont avenue, last night.

Anna Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, held their annual ball on Jan. 1st at the Grand Hotel. There was a good attendance.

James B. Davis has so far recovered from the injuries received in being thrown from a buggy several weeks ago as to be able to go out on crutches.

A "home social" was given in the Baptist Church on Friday night, under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

The "Worker," a periodical issued by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Baptist Church, made its first appearance on Thursday.

John H. Wells was well liked Monday night on the occasion of the Pioner Post and Dram Corps Ball. The affair was a great success socially and financially.

The coming week is the Week of Prayer. The Y. M. C. A. announce the commencement of the third entertainment of the course on Wednesday evening, Jan. 2nd.

The regular monthly meeting of the members of Essex Truck Company will be held next Tuesday evening. Business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

Mr. Ishart Romig, of Bloomfield, and Miss Laura Smith, of Orange, were married last week. Mr. and Mrs. Romig have taken up their residence on Belmont avenue.

A New Year party was held at the residence of Mr. E. A. Smith on Glen Ridge avenue, Tuesday night. There was a large attendance and the guests all enjoyed themselves.

The Baptist Church has arranged to send special Evangelical services for two weeks following the Week of Prayer. Rev. Robert Holmes, of Pittston, Pa., is expected to assist Rev. C. A. Cook.

The failure to place a lamp post on Belmont avenue as proposed some time since by the Committee has caused a little dissatisfaction among residents of that locality. The neglect is said to be on the part of the City Council.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the First Baptist Church was held last week. Trustees were elected, Rev. Robert Holmes, of Pittston, Pa., as pastor, and Rev. C. A. Cook, of Bloomfield, as secretary.

Ex-Tax Collector Ira Campbell is suffering with a dread affliction. Four years ago he sustained an injury to his foot by being stepped on by a horse. He has suffered with lameness ever since. On Saturday the wound began to show very alarming symptoms. A physician was called who pronounced it a case of dry gangrene. The doctor states that the only way to check the disease is to amputate the limb. Mr. Campbell is in his 32nd year. His many friends feel deeply his affliction.

Burglars accomplished a marvelous amount of work in Bloomfield on Wednesday night. An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the residence of Mr. Jason Crane on Franklin street. Mr. Richard Stout's residence was visited; the marauders were frightened off by the shooting of a pistol. Mr. H. C. Tamer's residence was entered and the thieves secured a gold watch. Mr. Lewis Danks' store was broken into, nothing of value was taken. Mr. E. A. Smith's house was entered and $5 in money secured. Mr. C. H. Barnes' residence was visited but without success. Some energetic action should be promptly taken to put a stop to this sort of villainous work.

Complaint was made to the School Trustees that Berkeley School was infested by tramps at night, who pass the night by the warm furnace. A member of the Board decided to put the verity of these assertions to a test. On Monday night, about twelve o'clock, he left his house, accompanied by a friend, and equipped with a lantern and revolver made a visit to the school. The building was thoroughly searched, but no tramps were found. A discovery of some importance was made, however, that is deserving of the attention of the Trustees. It was of a gross dereliction of duty on the part of the janitor. Several of the windows in the school room were open. The east rear door was wide open. These things might easily be interpreted by a shivering tramp as an invitation to enter and enjoy the warmth of the furnace.

The entertainment in Catholic Union Hall, Monday night, under the auspices of the young ladies of the Church of the Sacred Heart, proved a very enjoyable event. A contest for a silk hat among the gentlemen was an interesting event of the evening. The prize fell to the lot of Mr. Michael Duggan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith, of Bloomfield, were startled from their slumbers on Wednesday night by hearing the report of a pistol and a burglar retreating from the room. He had been rifling the pockets of Mr. Smith's clothes, when a pistol in one of the pockets fell to the floor and was discharged.

Edmund McGinley, a Glenwood avenue store-keeper had a desperate struggle with fire in his dwelling on Tuesday afternoon. The mantelpiece caught fire, but he succeeded in extinguishing it without calling the Fire Department to his assistance. His diffidence in this matter might have cost him several hundred dollars.

Residents of Bloomfield avenue near Race street were startled by a woman's piercing scream on Tuesday night. A coach was being driven along the avenue towards Newark and the inmates were engaged in a violent altercation. The driver of the coach paid no attention to the fracas going on in the vehicle, but drove right on.

Gas escaping into the ground from a broken gas main has destroyed a number of valuable shade trees on the property of Mr. Horace Freeman. The officers of the Gas Company lay the blame for the accident on the East Orange Water Company, whom it is alleged broke the gas main while putting down a water pipe and failed to report the accident.

Mr. W. C. Carl has been engaged by Dr. Frederick L. Ritter, professor of music at Vassar College, to give an organ recital at the college on the evening of Jan. 25th. The programme is to be illustrative of the development of organ music from the beginning of the fifteenth century to the present day. All the different schools of organ composition will be illustrated.

The Gospel Temperance meetings on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Sprague's Pavilion are still held. On Sunday, Jan. 6th, the meeting will be a Temperance Worker's Convention meeting, and all friends of Gospel Temperance work in Bloomfield are very specially and cordially invited to attend. There ought to be a grand rallying to this work which is non-political and of a purely Christian character.

Detectives were engaged on Monday in the neighborhood of Bloomfield avenue and Grove street in search of the men who committed the robbery and assault on the person of Mr. Jerome, of Belleville. The suspected parties cleared out when they learned that the officers were on their track. The perpetrators of the recent burglaries are supposed to reside in the suspected locality. The running away of two men has confirmed the suspicion.

The Township Committee met on Wednesday night. The ordinance fixing February 12th as the date for holding the special election for or against incorporation under the new township law was passed on its final reading. The complaint of the property owners on Glenwood avenue about water in their cellars, owing to improper drainage, was referred to the Road Committee for investigation. Poor, Police and Fire bills were presented and ordered paid.

The New York Herald is giving quite some attention to Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair and vicinity, especially in the New Jersey page of its Sunday issue. Last Sunday it contained a complete account of the party at the residence of Mr. Thomas Oakes. The Sunday Herald for December 23rd had a friendly sketch of Bloomfield and its oldest church, which is to be followed, we understand, by sketches of all the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, and Montclair churches and their pastors.

The Week of Prayer will be appropriately observed in the several Bloomfield churches. A union meeting will be held in the Sunday-School room of the First Presbyterian church on Monday night, and will be conducted by Rev. Geo. A. Paull of Westminister church. Evening meetings will be held in all the Evangelical churches during the week. On Saturday evening a union meeting will be held in the Park M. E. Church conducted by Rev. Chas. A. Cook, of the First Baptist Church.

These things might easily be interpreted by a shivering tramp as an invitation to enter and enjoy the warmth of the furnace.

The hop in the Alpine Club room last Friday night was a great success.

A social gathering took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank on Monday evening.

The work of clearing the underbrush from Mr. Dodd's property on Prospect street, preparatory to laying out streets, is being carried on.

A genuine mad dog scare occurred at the corner of Dodd and Prospect street on Tuesday. Mr. John Hibben's Newfoundland dog and Mrs. Van Aukens' terrier dog were bitten by a cur suffering with rabies. The three dogs were shot.

An innovation was made in the custom of Watch Night service in the Watessing M. E. Church on Monday night. A luncheon was the new feature introduced. Service began at 9 o'clock with a prayer meeting lasting an hour and a half. A recess of half an hour was spent in partaking of refreshments, after which the religious services were resumed.

The patronage of the Watessing M. E. Church received a second visitation from burglars on Wednesday night. Mr. Clement's son, George, was aroused by the noise of some one entering at the window from the piazza roof. The thief on realizing that he was discovered quickly retraced his steps and jumped from the roof and ran off. He describes him as a short, stout man, wearing a slouch hat.

Thomas Wilson, of Prospect street, invited a number of friends to his house on Wednesday night to view a Christmas tree. The tree, which was a large one, was brilliantly illuminated, and cotton was spread around the base in imitation of snow. A lighted candle fell from the tree, igniting the cotton. The whole thing was soon all over. Great consternation ensued among the guests, especially among the ladies and children. The several gentlemen present after much hard work succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The ceiling of the room was badly scorched.

A musicale was held at the residence of Mr. John Greenbank, Westcott street, on Tuesday night. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Messier; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Butterworth; Mr. James Albionson, of East Orange; Mr. F. H. Pileh, Miss Bertha Pileh, Miss Mary Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Auerott; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Law; Mr. and Mrs. Wyckoff Hardman; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Edgerly; Mr. John Auerott, Miss Jennie Law, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Tichnor; Mr. George Wilde, of Bloomfield; Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. John Hardman, of Newark.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Through the kind and generous support of the friends of the Association, we are enabled to celebrate our second anniversary day of debt. In view of this happy occasion a praise service will be held in the Rooms this Saturday evening. All are invited to attend.

The new year finds the Young Men's Christian Association of Bloomfield in a healthy condition. We hope it may continue so. Whether the citizens of Bloomfield sufficiently realize our needs and appreciate our endeavors to give us new quarters during the coming year or not is yet to be learned. We wait for that and hope not to be disappointed.

The Gymnasium in the Pavilion, we are glad to note, is proving successful. A number of young men have already joined evening classes, and indications speak for many more accessions in the future.

Mr. Smith, of Orange conducts the evening drill, which is quite enjoyable, interesting and beneficial. We feel very grateful to the friend who assisted us in fitting out the Pavilion for this purpose.
